

Dave Stapleton skied on the U.S. Ski Team in the World Cup from 1976 to 1981. He was Alpine Junior Skier of the Year in 1977, Alpine Ski Racing Competitor of the Year and Nor-Am Champion in 1977.

He left the U.S. Ski Team to race the Pro Skiing circuit from 1982 to 1993. He is the only Aspen resident to have a World Cup Trophy. Along with his dad and his daughter the Stapletons represent three generations of AVSC ski racers. David routinely tops the standings of the Aspen Town Race series.

